environmental and global RESPONSIBILITIES. Most important, however, is the recognition of our divine responsibilities: "We are the drop of water in a polluted ocean. We are a genetically manipulated seed planted in a field which has been doused with artificial fertiliser. We are a small tender plant strangled by rampant weeds. We are a million stars in a far flung galaxy. If we can take on these roles, we will ask WHY and search for solutions. If we are in polluted water, we will seek METHODS OF PURIFICATION. If we are a genetically manipulated seed, we will seek METHODS TO REVERSE ADVERSE PROGRAMING. If we are planted in contaminated soil, we will seek METHODS TO REGNERATE NATURALLY. If we are strangled by weeds, we will seek METHODS OF CLEARING THE MENTAL JUNGLE. And if we are a million stars, we will be encouraged to LIVE OUR INFINITE POTENTIAL AND SPREAD LIGHT ETERNALLY" These poetic as well as practical pearls of wisdom have been provided by the angel Seraphin, and have been received telepathically between 2009 and 2020 by the author and artist, Rosie Jackson.
