Crossroad Reviews 'This was incredible!... such a slow burn romance but the build-up had my heart beating out of my chest, the angst and suspense was killing me... This book was perfectly paced and the lack of info-dumping, love triangles and insta-love made for a perfect start to a new series. Switching from POV's from England and Paris and following the characters as they go from across countries was a great concept. With the addition of magic, action and adventure this book could really do no wrong in my eyes. There isn't a cliffhanger ending just the promise of lots more to come in the next installment which I'm now anxiously awaiting. Paradise Lost The Great California Fire Chronicles Jan 16 2020 On October 8th, 2017 at about 10:30 pm, the winds outside my home were moving the large Redwood Trees back and forth, though no storm, or wind had been predicted. I went outside and saw several flashes of blue light pulse in the vortex winds forming above me. At 4:30 am, my neighbor was pounding on my door telling me that emergency evacuations were being conducted due to several fires on the ridges. Going outside I could see only orange skies to the North and East, but no flames and no trees ablaze. Thus began my journey into discovering and uncovering how and why 157 "abnormal" fires began in 9 different counties in Northern California. I toured some of the over 4,000 homes that were destroyed to ash while trees adjacent were left untouched. I saw 3,000 pound cars flipped on their roofs. I saw a 100,000 sq. foot Kmart building, where the fire had to jump the six lane 101 freeway, cross a large parking lot and completely torch the inside, while the outside remained untouched. Thus began my journey into learning about what former Governor of California has deemed "The New Abnormal" for fires to occur in California over "The next 10, 15, 20 years time". Never before have firemen seen such fire activity and they have no context for understanding the advanced weaponry used on not only these fires, but fires that have been set ablaze in over 15 separate areas of California over the past 1 1/2 years. The deadliest of all California fires was the Camp Fire that occurred in Butte County on November 8th, 2018. This fire began with an explosion, again no weather related forecast, where winds were said to travel at "80 football fields per minute" which means these fires traveled at a never before speed of 273 mile per hour. 52,000 people were said to have safely evacuated Paradise, yet residents who were lucky to escape the fires, claim this is nowhere close to being true and many perished while fire departments stood down and military police locked down all of Paradise for a month, before allowing the victims that remained, to return to see if their homes still stood. There was no warning from public service officials. There were no winds the morning of the fire ignition, which has said to have been caused by 1) power poles falling, 2) bullet holes in transformers and recently, "fire igniting embers" that somehow entered into homes and turned them to ash. To a person I have interviewed said they received no help from any charitable organizations that has taken in millions of dollars donated to help the victims. They fled with the shirt on their backs, yet, just like in Santa Rosa after our fires, many become homeless or are sleeping in their cars with no one to turn to. This book is a result of some of my 80 YouTube videos I published while investigating the Paradise fires, as well as directly experiencing the 170 CA fires in October 2017. I also cover in this book the likely weaponry used to start the fires, the agenda behind the fires, and those who were directly benefit aka disaster capitalists. You can find my work also on YouTube at "Aplanetru3", "WellHealed2" and websites; Tabublog.com, Avvi.info, Aplanetru3.info and Wellhealed.life. This book details like no other before, the new abnormal and the takeover of California's precious resources.

When his newfound comfort goes up in smoke, how can he ever feel at home again? In a forest fire, so much can change in an instant. But both fox and boy learn that there are some things fire cannot burn. With time, the forest will regrow, the animals will return to their home, and so will the boy and his mom. As we all search for tools for understanding the destruction of forest fires, this touching story

Home Waters Apr 18 2020 "Beautiful. ... A lyrical companion to his father's classic, A River Runs through It, chronicling their family's history and bond with Montana's Blackfoot River." —Washington Post A "poetic" and "captivating" (Publishers Weekly) memoir about the power of place to shape generations, Home Waters is John N. Maclean's remarkable chronicle of his family's century-long love affair with Montana's majestic Blackfoot River, the setting for his father's classic novella, A River Runs through It. Maclean returns annually to the simple family cabin that his grandfather built by hand, still in search of the trout of a lifetime. When he hooks it at last, decades of longing promise to be fulfilled, inspiring John, reporter and author, to finally write the story he was born to tell. A book that will resonate with everyone who feels deeply rooted to a landscape, Home Waters is a portrait of a family who claimed a river, from one generation to the next, of how this family came of age in the 20th century and later as they scattered across the country, faced tragedy and success, yet were always drawn back to the waters that bound them together. Here are the true stories behind the beloved characters fictionalized in A River Runs through It, including the Reverend Maclean, the patriarch who introduced the family to fishing; Norman, who balanced a life divided between literature and the tug of the rugged West; and tragic yet luminous Paul (played by Brad Pitt in Robert Redford's film adaptation), whose mysterious death has haunted the family and led John to investigate his uncle's murder and reveal new details in these pages. A universal story about nature, family, and the art of fly fishing, Maclean's memoir beautifully captures the inextricable ways our personal histories are linked to the places we come from—our home waters. Featuring twelve wood engravings by Wesley W. Bates and a map of the Blackfoot River region.

1636: The Chronicles of Dr. Gribbleflotz Jun 20 2020 A sparkling addition to the multiple New York Times best-selling Ring of Fire alternate history series created by Eric Flint. An alchemist of the 17th century confronts modern science with often amusing results. Phillip Theophrastus Gribbleflotz, the world's greatest alchemist and a great-grandson of Paracelsus—and a Bombast on his mother's side—was a man history had forgotten. But when the town of Grantville was transported by a cosmic accident from modern West Virginia to central Germany in the early seventeenth century, he got a second chance at fame and fortune. The world's greatest alchemist does not make household goods. But with suitable enticements Gribbleflotz is persuaded to make baking soda and then baking powder so that the time-displaced Americans can continue to enjoy such culinary classics as biscuits and gravy. Applying his superb grasp of the principles of alchemy to the muddled and confused notions the Americans have concerning what they call “chemistry,” Gribbleflotz leaves obscurity behind. In his relentless search for a way to invigorate the quinta essential of the human humors, Gribbleflotz plays a central role in jump-starting the seventeenth century’s new chemical and marital aids industries—and pioneering such critical fields of human knowledge as pyramidology and aura imaging. These are his chronicles. At the publisher's request, this title is sold without DRM (Digital Rights Management).
